48 HOURS MYSTERY

11/03/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Blood Feud" (WEST COAST ONLY) - Nancy Seaman, an award-winning teacher living in Farmington Hills, Michigan, an exclusive Detroit suburb, was accused of the 2004 hatchet/stabbing murder of her husband, Bob. She admits killing him, but says it was self-defense, claiming that he had been mentally and physically abusing her for years. The couple's two sons -- Greg and Jeff -- differ concerning their parent's marriage and the life they all shared. Greg sympathizes with his mother, claiming that his father was abusive and that his mother's life was in danger. Jeff, who testified for the prosecution, denies that his mother was a battered wife. Nancy Seaman was tried and found guilty of murder in the first degree and was sentenced to life in prison. This past August, the judge in the case ordered Nancy Seaman's conviction reduced from first to second-degree murder. If the ruling is upheld Nancy's life sentence could be reduced to as little as seven and a half years. Includes interviews with: Nancy Seaman; her sons Greg and Jeff; defense attorney Larry Kaluzny; Lisa Ortlieb, prosecutor in the case and director of Oakland County's Domestic Violence Unit; and Dr. Lenore Walker, an expert on abused women. (C: Maureen Maher - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Nancy Kramer) No individual segment titles were used in this episode. (OAD: 04/09/05) (Rebroadcasts: (1) 01/03/06 - includes an update; (2) 11/03/07 - WEST COAST ONLY rebroadcast of the 01/03/06 edition, due to sports overrun)

11/10/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Time To Kill" - A report on the September 12, 2001 disappearance of Michele Harris, a resident of Tioga County, New York. Michele, a mother of four, was involved in a bitter divorce with her husband, Cal Harris. He claimed she did not return home on the evening of September 11, 2001; her empty van was discovered at the end of their driveway the next morning. Cal denied any involvement and when no evidence was found during a search of the Harris home, he suggested to investigators that they take a closer look at Michele's personal life. Investigators uncovered that Michele was involved with two different men, both of whom had seen Michele the night she disappeared. Two days after the initial search, a forensic specialist was sent to the Harris home and found tiny specks of blood on a kitchen doorway, something that had been overlooked during the initial investigation. With the discovery of a possible crime scene, as well as Cal's refusal to take a polygraph, focus was placed on Cal, who began a relationship with a former girlfriend just eighteen days after Michele's disappearance. On September 30, 2005, Cal Harris was arrested and charged with murder. The trial began on May 21, 2007 and ultimately, he was found guilty of second degree murder. Just days before Cal Harris was to be sentenced, a new witness came forward and claimed to have driven past the Harris driveway around dawn on September 12, 2001 and had seen a man and a woman, who appeared to be arguing. According to this new eyewitness, the woman resembled Michele, but the man did not look like Cal. With this new information, the judge threw out Cal's conviction for the murder of his wife and ordered a new trial. It will be at least a year before Cal Harris is tried again. - 11/24/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Strange Truth" - in the early morning hours of March 21, 2003, Ramona "Mona" Krotine left an office party just outside Cleveland, Ohio, and was never seen alive again. Nearly 24 hours later, she was found in the trunk of her car, beaten and shot to death. At first, police suspected a botched robbery because Mona was carrying the cash receipts from working at a concession earlier that day. Subsequently, Mona's husband, Jeffrey, began acting suspiciously, and the focus of the police investigation shifted to a domestic murder. Authorities believed that Mona had actually returned home after the party and that Jeffrey, having killed her, attempted to cover up the crime by destroying evidence, including portions of bedroom carpet and a large headboard. The case, largely circumstantial, went to trial twice, both times resulting in a hung jury. The jury at a third trial found Krotine not guilty. Officially, the murder of Mona Krotine remains an open case, but Jeff Krotine can never be retried for his wife's murder. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 12/01/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Capture the Queen" - On July 4th, 1999, Brooke Leigh Henson of Travelers Rest, South Carolina, was reported missing from her home, hours after getting in an argument with her boyfriend, Ricky Shaun Shirley. Shirley, who had convictions for drug violations and assaults, refused to talk and hired an attorney. With no cooperating witnesses and no body, the case stalled. In 2006, there was a potential break when police received a tip that there was a woman calling herself Brooke Henson, living in New York City and attending Columbia University. Though able to answer personal questions provided by Brooke's aunt, Lisa Henson, it was determined through a photograph that the woman in question was not her niece. Hoping to get a DNA sample for testing, police made an appointment with the mystery woman, who never showed up. Upon further investigation, it was discovered that the woman using Brooke's name was Esther Elizabeth Reed. Esther had disappeared from the Seattle, Washington area after pleading guilty to theft and forgery in 1999. Since her disappearance, Esther has been making her way across the country, claiming to be a chess champion. Using phoney Social Security numbers, fake identities, first as Natalie Fisher, then Natalie Bowman, and finally, as Brook Henson, she has managed to elude authorities. In addition, she financed her Manhattan lifestyle through fraudulent student loans taken in Brooke Henson's name. This September, a federal grand jury in South Carolina handed down an indictment, charging Esther Reed with felony identity theft and student loan fraud. Federal Authorities are currently searching for Esther Reed, who remains at large. Includes interviews with: Lisa Henson, Brooke Henson's aunt; Detective Jon Campbell, lead detective on the Brooke Henson case; Edna Strom, Esther Reed's sister; Bitu Shaghagi, Esther's roommate and friend from Cal State Fullerton; and Steve Rambam, a private investigator hired by 48 HOURS MYSTERY to locate Esther Reed. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

12/08/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "An Invisible Enemy" - United States Marine Todd Sommer, married and a father to four children, was only twenty-three years old when he collapsed on February 18th, 2002 and died in San Diego, California. The Navy Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) opened a routine investigation into Todd's death and found nothing unusual. Though he had been exhibiting symptoms similar to food poisoning in the days leading up to his death, the official cause of death was cardiac arrhythmia. A year later, his wife Cynthia relocated to Florida with a new boyfriend and her four children, but NCIS Special Agent Mark Ridley believed that the autopsy had overlooked important clues -- the symptoms Todd had been experiencing days before his collapse. He believed that those symptoms and Todd's sudden death were related, and ordered a rare heavy metals test on Todd's tissue sample. Almost two and a half years after Todd's death, results indicated that Todd was poisoned with a lethal dose of arsenic. The NCIS became convinced that Todd's death was a homicide and that the lure of Todd's military life insurance policy gave Cynthia the motive for murder. In November 2005, Cynthia Sommer was arrested and charged with first-degree murder. Based on the time Todd's symptoms first appeared and the fact that the symptoms of an acute arsenic poisoning mimic the severe stomach problems Todd experienced, the prosecutor concluded that Cynthia was the only person who could have poisoned her husband. That, along with what prosecutors called immoral behavior, including breast implant surgery, resulted in Cynthia being found guilty of murder. Ten months later, at Cynthia's sentencing hearing, her new attorney, Allen Bloom, asked the judge to grant her a new trial, based on the number of errors committed by her trial attorney, Bob Udell. The judge agreed and granted a new trial motion. Cynthia Sommer maintains her innocence and is asking to be released on bail. No new trial date has been set. (C: Bill Lagattuta - P: Marcelena Spencer, Gayane Keshishyan, Ira Sutow)

12/15/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Girl Next Door" (2) - a follow-up to one of the two stories included in "The Girl Next Door" (OAD: 01/07/06). In that report, Detective Scott Dudek of the Alameda County (CA) Sheriff's Office was attempting to establish the identity of a teenage girl whose body was found on May 1, 2003 in a trash bag left behind a restaurant in Castro Valley, California. Forensic sculptor Gloria Nusse created a reconstruction of the girl's face, based on nothing but her skull. After the initial 2006 report on 48 HOURS MYSTERY, a viewer called to say that the victim looked like a young girl who had been seen around Castro Valley with Miguel Castaneda, who had worked at the restaurant where the body was dumped. He had disappeared, but police received a tip that the girl and the man she had been seen with might have been from the same hometown in Mexico. Dudek and his team then went to Yahualica, Mexico. There they extensively publicized their search and handed out many fliers. A woman whose daughter was missing came forward, and a DNA sample would later confirm that she was the mother of the now-identified victim: Yesenia Nungaray. Yesenia was given a funeral in her hometown. The search for Miguel Castaneda continues. (C: Harold Dow - P: Clare Friedland)

- 12/22/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Biggest Gamble” - a follow-up to “The Highest Stakes” (OAD: 03/04/06), a report on the investigation into the October 2005 disappearance of Christie Wilson, a 27-year-old from Sacramento, California. Christie was last seen at the Thunder Valley Casino in the company of Mario Garcia, a 53-year-old married father of two. A lengthy investigation revealed that Mario had a prior criminal record including charges of rape and assault with a deadly weapon and spousal abuse. That information, as well as DNA evidence linking him to Christie, resulted in his arrest. His trial lasted two months and the jury deliberated for just three days. Despite the absence of a murder weapon and physical evidence to prove that Christie Wilson is dead, Mario Garcia was sentenced to a term of twenty-five years to life. Based on a serious prior conviction, his sentence was doubled to fifty years. Mario Garcia still maintains his innocence. Volunteers continue to search for Christie Wilson’s body. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Paul LaRosa & Melissa Sanford) (OAD: 02/17/07 - includes an update.)
- 12/25/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Mystery of Christmas” - Correspondent Maureen Maher journeys to the Holy Land to investigate the story of the birth of Jesus. 48 HOURS searches for archeological proof of the Biblical accounts, decodes the messages hidden in the scriptures and examines starkly different versions of Christmas. Maher explores the lands of the Bible with Professor Ben Witherington, a conservative scholar and evangelical minister, in a return to the ‘historical bedrock’ where history and faith intersect. Witherington takes 48 HOURS to the cave in Bethlehem where he says Jesus was born; the excavations of ancient Nazareth; Carpernaum, where Jesus’ ministry was based; and the stone city of Petra, where he claims the Wise Men passed through. The broadcast examines numerous questions. Was Jesus born in Bethlehem of Nazareth? Were there shepherds at Christ’s birth, or magi, or both? Was there a guiding star the night of the birth? Is December 25th the true birth date of Christ? How accurate are the different infancy narratives in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke? How much creative license did the Gospel authors take? Witherington makes the case for the Virgin Birth. The veracity of the belief is questioned by Professor John Dominic Crossan, a former Roman Catholic monk, and Princeton University Professor Elaine Pagels. (C: Maureen Maher - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Miguel Sancho) (OAD: 12/20/05)
- 12/29/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Defending Your Life” (WEST COAST ONLY) - for nearly 17 years, sisters Kim and Beth Jones of Snohomish, Washington, have been trying to prove that their father, Jerry Jones, Jr. is innocent of the Dec. 3, 1988 stabbing murder of their mother, Lee. Jones was tried and found guilty of his wife’s murder, but in 1999, an appeals court ordered him released due to an ineffective lawyer. In 2001, Jones was re-tried and re-convicted. His conviction was reversed again, because the jury didn’t hear crucial evidence. In 2005, Jones, who chose to represent himself, was tried for the third time. Despite Jones’ attempts to prove that Danny Busby, a teenage neighbor, was the real killer, a jury found him guilty of murder. He was sentenced to 25 years in prison, but as a result of time served and good behavior, Jerry Jones will be eligible for release in three years. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIALS

- 12/09/07 “American Muslims: A Chance To Speak” - a report on the Muslim community in Toledo Ohio, focusing on the Islamic Center of Greater Toledo. Observing the most important elements of Islamic life and teaching, the Center and its people are typical of established mainstream Muslims in America. Anxious to get their story out and not have the public rely on news reports and dramas involving Muslims with radical agendas, especially after the tragedy of 9/11, they are heavily involved in community outreach and extend a welcoming hand to other religious and college groups interested in Islam. Among those interviewed are: Yehia Shousher and Mitch Salem, founding fathers of the original Toledo community; Imam Farooq Abo-Elzahab, spiritual leader trained in Cairo and hand picked by the Islamic Center; Drs. Zaheer Hasan and A.Y. Ahmed, past and present presidents of the Center; and Dr. Ingrid Mattson, professor of Islamic Studies and Christian Muslim relations at Hartford Seminary and president of the Islamic Society of North America. Producer/Narrator: Ted Holmes
- 12/23/07 “In God’s Name” - Twelve of the world’s most influential spiritual leaders, whose combined faiths represent more than four billion people, offer their personal perspectives on some of the urgent issues in today’s world, including the rise of terrorism, fanaticism, intolerance and war. The filmmakers, Jules and Gedeon Naudet, visit each leader in their own intimate settings, including their homes and personal places of worship. As each one voices his or her own individual thoughts and beliefs about faith, peace, tolerance and hope, a cumulative expression of a common ground among believers around the world is revealed. Those interviewed include: Alexei II, Patriarch of Moscow and head of the Russian Orthodox Church; Amma (Mata Amritanandamayi), a Hindu spiritual leader; Pope Benedict XVI, head of the Roman Catholic Church; The Dalai Lama (Tenzin Gyatso), spiritual leader of Tibetan Buddhists; Ayatollah Muhammad Hussein Fadlallah, a prominent Shi’ite Muslim leader; Bishop Mark Hanson, President of the Lutheran World Federation; Michihisa Kitashirakawa, Jingu Daiguji (High Priest) of the Shinto Grand Shrine of Ise; Yona Metzger, Ashkenasi Chief Rabbi of Israel; Dr. Frank Page, President of the Southern Baptist Convention; Muhammad Sayyed Tantawi, Sheikh of Al-Azhar and a prominent Sunni Muslim leader; Joginder Singh Vedanti, Jathedar of the Akal Takht, the Sikhs’ highest authority; Dr. Rowan Williams, Archbishop of Canterbury and head of the Church of England. Executive Producer for CBS: Susan Zirinsky, CBS News. Executive Producers: Jules Naudet, Gedeon Naudet, Virginie Luc, Mark Koops (for Reveille). Produced by Reveille and CBS EyeToo Productions, in association with Goldfish Pictures, Inc.

Tenor Johan Botha and soprano Camellia Johnson are the featured artists. The broadcast, hosted by actress Marcia Gay Harden, also includes a Christmas message from Dr. Arthur Caliendo, Senior Minister of the Church. Executive Producer for CBS: John P. Blessington.
